

Protecting Children by Strengthening Families

Media release

For more information, contact:

August 2016

Bruce Cadwallader (614) 341-6085 or blcadwal@fcss.us

Marion Thompson (614) 275-2780 or mrthomps@fcss.us

Franklin County Children Services and Mayor Andrew J. Ginther Present FamJam

Franklin County Children Services and Mayor Andrew J. Ginther are partnering to present the 8th annual FamJam — A Family Enrichment Festival, on Saturday, August 27, from 10 a.m. to 3 p.m. at our new location — Genoa Park (303 W. Broad Street).

The event is free and open to the public. Families and children in the city and throughout Franklin County are welcome to attend. Entertainment, featuring youth performances, will fill the stage, along with bounce houses, face painting, free food, and many more games and activities throughout the park. An array of community organizations and exhibitors will be present to share valuable family information and prizes.

In keeping with Franklin County Children Services' mission to protect children by strengthening families, FamJam will allow participants to engage in educational and interactive activities as well as have tons of fun.

"This event is great for the entire family and we are thrilled to be working with our city and county partners to bring you a day outside at FamJam. We hope everyone comes out to enjoy," said Chip M. Spinning, executive director of Franklin County Children Services.

Children Services staff will provide parenting tips, as well as information about adoption and volunteer opportunities. Attendees will also learn home and neighborhood safety tips from the Franklin County Sheriff's Office, Columbus Division of Police and the Columbus Division of Fire. For more information, call (614) 341-6085 or visit: childrenservices.franklincountyohio.gov or www.columbus.gov/pride.

Other community partners include Target, Molina Healthcare, Kroger, Lowe's, AT&T Pioneers, Dr. Pepper/Snapple Group, the Columbus Metropolitan Library, Xclaim Dance, and a host of city and county agencies. FamJam is free and parking is available at COSI for $5.

###