

Software Development Specialist 3

As part of the agency's IT Department, the Software Development Specialist 3 functions as an independent application developer, providing overall innovative guidance and control of applications development environment including, but not limited to, enterprise wide architecture evaluation and selection, application installation and setup, capacity planning, governance, code review and change control. They develop team level management and reporting tools, database management, backups and restores, application security, systems updates and maintenance, and project identification and selection. They provide triage to isolate the component of failure for all software development issues. Employee also guides junior staff on executing peer to peer code review.

This position works with business area personnel to ensure requirement(s) are thoroughly defined and approved. Performs impacts analyses to identify interdependencies and innovates. They assist with design reviews to include integration and data schema.

The employee:

- Creates detailed test designs and test plans. Creates and reviews test data for performing test scenarios. Coordinates execution of unit and system test scripts.
- Coordinates debugging efforts and defect tracking.
- Coordinates support of user acceptance testing.
- Coordinates software implementation and deployment tasks.
- Leads development, implementation and monitoring of IT quality assurance standards to include all change control for the software development team and testing. Performs performance and load testing.

Advantages of working at Franklin County Children Services

- Health care benefits - medical/dental/vision/RX/mental health/EAP
- Life insurance plans
- Ten paid holidays, five personal days and two weeks' vacation after your first year!
- We contribute 8.5% of your OPERS contribution
- Tuition reimbursement
- College loan repayment and Perkins Loan deferment/pay-off
- Longevity pay/length of service pay
- Opportunities for advancement!

Qualifications:

- Completion of undergraduate core program in computer science or information systems or 36 months combined work experience in any combination of the following: assuring requirements are defined and approved, performing code reviews and ensuring application development standards are met.
- Completion of associate core program in computer science or information systems; or 42 months combined work experience in any combination of the following: assuring requirements are defined and approved, performing code reviews and ensuring application development standards are met.

- Sixty months combined work experience in any combination of the following: ensuring requirements are defined and approved, performing code reviews and ensuring application development standards are met.
- Successful applicant will have a bachelor's degree in computer science or a related field, five years of work experience as a SharePoint Administrator with experience training users and gathering business requirements, five years in the role as a lead developer within a SharePoint environment using InfoPath forms, SharePoint or Nintex workflows, SharePoint Designer and Oracle SQL.

All positions are subject to a criminal background, fingerprinting, employment verification, and motor vehicle report checks. Also, all offers of employment are contingent on receipt of a negative pre-employment drug test.

You can view a complete position description and get additional details about openings on our website at <http://childrenservices.franklincountyohio.gov/about/employment.cfm>