

.NET Developer

Franklin County Children Services is seeking a .NET developer in our Information Technology Department.

The ideal candidate will possess a bachelor's degree in computer science or a related area and two years of experience in software architecture selection and usage or the equivalent; excellent written communication and presentation skills; strong interpersonal skills; basic project management course work; one or more courses in application development and administration; two years of experience in .NET development, Oracle/SQL server development, InfoPath/SharePoint development. They will have five years of work experience as a database administrator or developer, specifically supporting MS SQL Server and Oracle. They will also have two years of development experience with a SharePoint environment using InfoPath forms, SharePoint or Nintex workflows, SharePoint Designer and Oracle SQL. In addition, they will have two years of experience with client web development within a Net framework, two years of experience with OnBase API and SharePoint integration, as well as Microsoft and OnBase certifications.

Responsibilities include:

- Designing, modifying and testing software application programs using .NET and Oracle
- Utilizing established development tools, guidelines and conventions, including, but not limited to ASP.NET, SQL Server, HTML, CSS, JavaScript and Oracle
- Maintaining existing software systems by identifying and correcting software defects
- Creating technical specifications and test plans
- Providing guidance and control of applications development environment including, but not limited to, architecture evaluation and selection, application installation and setup, as well as capacity planning
- Providing governance, change control and reporting to management
- Database management, backups and restores, application security, systems update and maintenance
- Creating API's to interface between systems

The successful candidate must demonstrate cultural awareness, sensitivity and a commitment to meeting organizational goals. Competitive salary and excellent fringe benefits. For additional information and job description please go to our website at: <http://childrenservices.franklincountyohio.gov/> . Apply or send resume along with cover letter and preferred salary requirements to: Franklin County Children Services, Attn: Human Resources, 855 W. Mound St., Columbus, Ohio 43223 or email to fccshr@fccs.us.

